Crop comments: It's hard to see anyone touching Mentor in the top spot. The Cardinals have the best starting 11 around here. ... The fight for No. 2 should be interesting, with a handful of teams that make a good case for the spot. ... Orange lost a lot from its regional-qualifying team, but a young group is getting the job done so far and deserves its spot. ... Lake Catholic isn't a team you'll want to see late in the year if it keeps playing like this with a fairly young lineup. ... As always, the bottom half of the Crop should fluctuate.
